

Welcome to the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning of Greater Los Angeles (PPP-LA). PPP-LA, a council member of the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning, is an association of planned giving professionals in the greater Los Angeles area. As one of the most dynamic and innovative councils in the country, the PPP-LA offers its members opportunities for improving their technical skills and professional knowledge while building a valuable network of colleagues in the planned giving community. We welcome you to discover the valuable opportunities and benefits available to the members of the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning of Greater Los Angeles as you peruse this website.

Western Regional Planned Giving Conference

The Partnership for Philanthropic Planning of Greater Los Angeles (PPP-LA) just wrapped up the 2017 Western Regional Planned Giving Conference (WRPGC), "To Boldly Go." Today, the WRPGC is regarded as one of the premier planned giving conferences in the country.

Participation has grown enormously with attendees as well as sponsors. ☐☐ The conference's popularity has grown exponentially among financial planners, accountants, gift planning, and major gift officers, and vice presidents and directors of development. The dates for 2018 are May 30th through June 1st. Mark your calendar!
