

PPP-LA is proud to offer our members the PPP-LA Career Center . The career center is the place to find the most comprehensive listing of philanthropic planning positions for the southern California area. Please take a moment to create a profile, which will allow you to create job alerts tailored to your needs, and upload your most current resume to allow recruiters to find out about your unique skills (your contact information is kept completely confidential until you elect to release it).

If your organization is hiring, please recommend the PPPLA Career Center as part of your recruiting strategy. Members have access to discounted job postings!
